

When the people of Gibeon lied to Joshua and told him that they were from a far-off land, he failed to consult God and signed a peace treaty with them. He found out that were lying.

Read what happens
Joshua 9:23

What was the consequence of their lie?

When a gang of town youth mocked Israel's prophet Elisha, he did something that would change their lives.

Read what happens
2 Kings 2:23-25

Wow! Blessing or curse?

When Gideon asks the men of Succoth for bread to feed his 300 troops, they refuse because he hadn't captured the enemies yet. Gideon promises that they will see him again.

Read what happens
Judges 8:15-17

Was it a good idea to be selfish with Israel over bread?

Nabal refused to give David and his troops food. His foolish behavior caused his wife Abigail to provide the needed relief. Nabal's selfish lifestyle was known by everyone.

Read what happens
1 Samuel 25: 36-38

Was Nabal's life blessed or cursed?

Eglon, the King of Moab, conqueror the Israelites and made them subject to him for eighteen years. Help was coming in the shape of a double-edge sword.

Read what happens
Judges 3:16-25

Where did that knife go? Was Eglon blessed or cursed?

When Sisera was murdered by Jael as he slept, the Israelites were able to conquer the Canaanite king. Now all the Israelites cam out to help. The prophetess Deborah was not happy.

Read what happens
Judges 5:23

What did Deborah declare over a certain people because they did not come to help Israel?

When Moses asked Pharaoh to allow the Israelite people to go to the desert to worship the Lord, the Egyptian leader refused.

Read what happens
Exodus 7:20,21

What happened throughout Egypt because their leader would not help Israel?

When a Philistine giant curses a young shepherd boy who comes to Israel's rescue, the youth calls on a God of his own.

Read what happens
1 Samuel 17:45-54

For Goliath, did the day end in a blessing or curse?

When the King of Israel, David, danced with delight in great celebration before the Lord, his wife Michal mocked him and her consequence was great.

Read what happens
2 Samuel 6:20-23

The King of Israel led the nation in celebrating worship. Did his wife's life end up blessed or cursed because of the happy event?

When a high official named Haman grows to despise the Jewish people, he plots to kill them all. His plan to kill his most hated Jew by hanging on the gallows backfired miserably.

Read what happens
Esther 7:9,10

Did the gallows end up a blessing or a curse to Haman?